2017 GREATER LANSING

ENTREPRENEURIAL AWARDS

“THE TRUE ENTREPRENEUR IS A DOER, NOT A DREAMER.”

— NOLAN BUSHNELL

WELCOME TO THE 23RD ENTREPRENEURIAL AWARDS!

As an entrepreneur myself, I’m excited to invite you to be a part of this year’s award program. In my third year as host of this great event, I look forward to sharing with you an energized program that has been an integral part of the business community for over two decades.

Whether you’ve attended every year since its inception or are a first-time guest, I encourage you to take part in the Greater Lansing Entrepreneurial Awards. It’s an evening full of inspiration, innovation and most importantly, fun.

Can’t wait to see you there!

Greater Lansing Business Monthly

Businesses come in all shapes, sizes, missions and unique selling propositions. The one thing every small business has in common is that it continues to be the lifeblood of the economy. Whether it’s a car dealership, an engineering firm, a bakery or anything in between, the work that’s done started with an idea, a passion and the willingness to take a risk. The greater Lansing region has amazing companies with a spirit and drive to make a big impact ... just like those honored at the annual Greater Lansing Entrepreneurial Award Dinner.

Past winners include Kellie Dean of Dean Transportation, Patrick Gillespie of Gillespie Group, Tiffany Dowling of M3 Group, Sherrill Freeborough of Hyundai of Lansing, Bob Fish of BIGGBY, Sam Eyde of Eyde Company, Van Martin of CBRE Martin, Keith Granger of Granger Waste Management and many more.
